BIOGRAPHY

MAYA AVRAHAM who is known to all of us from The Idan Raichel Project is coming to LA with her band. In her new show she will sing the greatest hits from The Project and her personal hits as well as some surprising cover versions. Before joining the Idan Raichel Project, Maya was a sought after backup singer for Israel's biggest stars: Sarit Hadad, Eyal Golan, Shlomi Shabat and more. Maya released her first album "Rak Ratzit Ahava" in 2008 and "La Yom Haze Chikiti" in 2015. Both albums received rave reviews and her songs became hits on Israeli radio. Her third album is due in 2017.

"Maya is a singer that the Israeli mainstream needs. She combines the style of Ofra Haza with the recently opened horizons of World and Mediterranean Music. She is a singer for the whole nation and the whole family... She is able to combine love, pain, honesty and optimism with diverse and excellent Israeli pop." Asaf Nevo - Mako
